

LEOH PARTY DAY

November 10, 2022

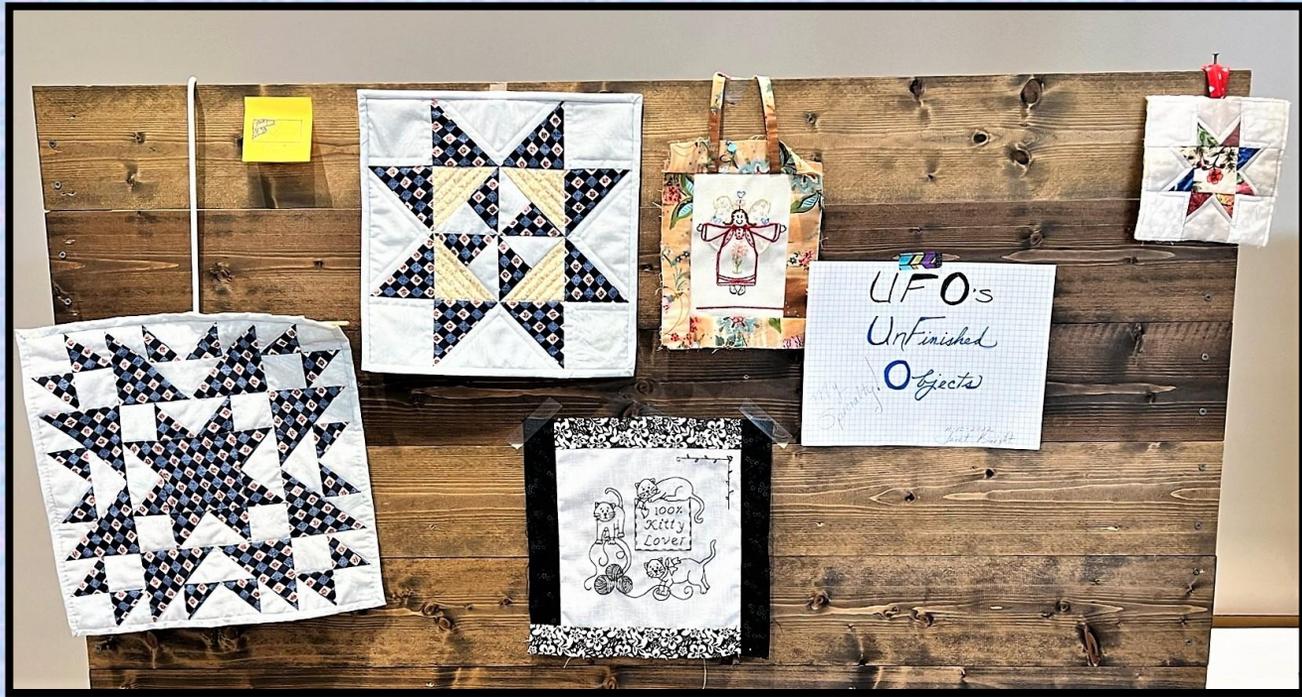

LEOH's final meeting this Fall celebrated the completion of another successful session! Members enjoyed refreshments and fellowship, as they viewed and admired the beautiful works of art instructor Marie Schaer's watercolor class. In addition, there were numerous quilt projects to appreciate, along with lovely crochet pieces from several members.

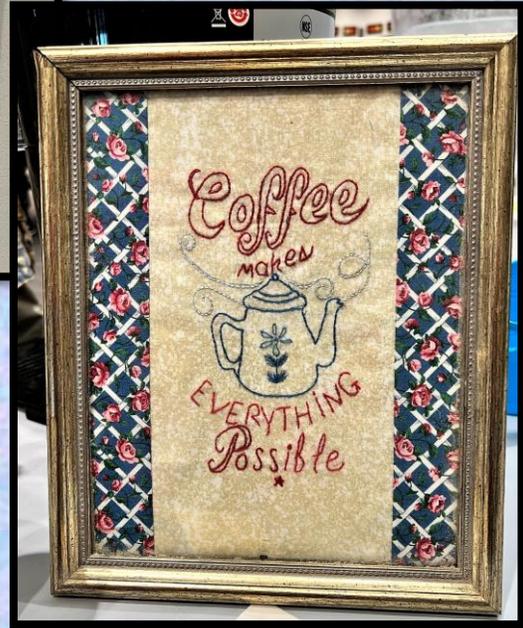

The patriotically-themed table decorations were a reminder that we were also recognizing the upcoming Veterans Day.

It was time to not only enjoy viewing the artwork and sewing handiwork, but also to grab some books for winter reading, and to visit friends.

Mary Mahon introduced the Frown Busters,
God's Funny Bone.

They entertained everyone with funny skits and, yes,
corny jokes, but they were very entertaining!

Audience participation was encouraged! To the right, a LEOH member who was celebrating a November birthday became part of a skit.

To the left, the audience participated in hand and arm gestures during a sing-a-long!

The Frown Busters stuck around to visit members, as well as enjoy lunch.

Lunchtime!

Everyone went through the serving line to select either turkey or brisket BBQ, along with delicious sides, from Old Hickory Inn.

And you can't have a meal without cake and ice cream for dessert!

Everyone also enjoyed visiting with LEOH friends, before and during lunch.

Ann Fairchild held a drawing during lunch to award several free gift items to lucky members. In addition, small bins containing a few items were distributed to all members who were present; a parting gift until LEOH meets again next Spring!

Between the entertainment and lunch, Mary Mahon thanked the LEOH volunteers and instructors who make LEOH a great organization!
A special thank-you gift was given to LEOH President Ken Euler.
Mary also read a tribute in remembrance of Veterans Day.

Some of the volunteers who make LEOH so successful are the fabulous KITCHEN CREW (above); left to right, they are Bill Grimes, Julie Larson, Joe and Patsy Frederick, Tom and Sandra Williams, Jennifer Stone, and chair Mary Mahon.

Jane Shinn and treasurer Rosalie Thurbon shared registration duties for the Fall session, ensuring that everything went smoothly for new as well as old members.
